

Attn: Nursery/Garden Shop owner:

AmpleHarvest.org^(sm) is a nationwide program, backed by Google and the USDA that helps to diminish hunger in your community by enabling backyard gardeners wishing to share their excess garden bounty, to find a local food pantry.

Key to the success of the campaign is making as many gardeners as possible aware of their opportunity to donate excess garden produce to a nearby food pantry.

Please help diminish hunger in your community by posting the other side of this flier near your cashier or somewhere else where your customers can easily see it.

Additional copies of this flier are available for download at www.AmpleHarvest.org/gardenshop

One out of six Americans is food insecure.

It doesn't have to be this way.

Home Gardeners vs Hunger in the Community

You may be one of 42 million Americans who grow more food in their home gardens than they can possibly use, preserve or give to friends.

One out of six of Americans needs help feeding their family yet can't get healthy fresh produce from a neighborhood food pantry.

It doesn't have to be that way!

AmpleHarvest.org enables you to diminish hunger in your own community by helping you share your excess garden bounty with a neighborhood food pantry.

Times are tough.

You can help your neighbors in need by reaching into your backyard instead of your back pocket.
